Subject: Concerned Yet Again

It seems like I stay concerned most of the time. I don't like that. I had an opportunity of visiting with Larry Hodges yesterday. He shared with me things I want to visit with you about.

1. the feelings of many citizens is that the actions of the council are always negative and not transparent. We are not interested in the citizens knowing what is going on.
2. We don't communicate well.
3. We don't tell our story well
4. Citizens want a say in building a conv. ctr.
5. We need to sell the need for a conv. ctr as well as a city hall. (I want to move forward on creating some special interest groups to sell the red light camera issue and the convention center issue.

Lets talk about these items.

thanks, Ben
